Our Mission:

To achieve a national culture of employment rights compliance

The National Employment Rights Authority (NERA) is working to secure better compliance with employment rights legislation.

Inspection

NERA is responsible for monitoring a range of employment rights for all workers in Ireland. The inspectors operate in a fair and impartial manner, carrying out a variety of routine planned inspections throughout the country and also investigating alleged employment rights breaches.

Enforcement & Prosecution

Where evidence of non-compliance with employment rights legislation is found, inspectors seek redress from the employer for the employee. In some cases prosecutions can be initiated against the employer.

NERA will also, in certain circumstances, pursue the enforcement of awards made by the Labour Court and the Employment Appeals Tribunal.
